

Delmar Hampton named USV Lions Club president

Delmar Hampton, 602 N. Main St., Alger, was elected Charter President of the Upper Scioto Valley Lions Club when the newly-formed club held its organizational meeting at The Red Fox Inn Oct. 26.

Other charter officers elected include Steve Collingsworth, first vice president; Paul Spradlin, second vice president; Fred Graham, third vice president; John Williams, secretary; Louis Ankerman, treasurer; Richard Hampton, Lion Tamer; John McDaniel, Tailwister; Ralph Shadley and Dick Mushaw, two-year directors and Jack Shepherd and Bill Hervey, one-year directors.

The USV Lions have set the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month as their meeting dates and the meetings will be held at The Red Fox Inn at 7 p.m.

The Charter Night for the club is scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 6, with the location of this meeting still to be determined.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, Nov. 14 with planning for the Charter Night being the main order of business.

The organizational meeting was also attended by Jerry Dearth of the Ada Lions Club. Dearth was one of two Ada Lions Club members instrumental in getting the Upper Scioto Valley Lions established, the other being Ray Long.

Ada Lions president Dick Chambers and Zone Chairman Neil Allen were also in attendance.

DELMAR HAMPTON

Officers installed

USV Lions Club gets charter

The Upper Scioto Valley Lions Club officially came into being Saturday night when the club's charter from Lions International was presented at the "Charter Night" Banquet held in McIntosh Center on the campus of Ohio Northern University.

The charter was presented by District Governor Wilbur Hughes, Huntsville, and accepted on behalf of the new club by charter president Delmar Hampton.

Senior Deputy District Governor C. Thomas Roberds, Springfield, installed the charter officers and Junior Deputy District Governor Carl Myers, Marysville, inducted the new members.

The USV Lions Club has 31 charter members.

Installed during the evening were president Delmar Hampton, first vice president Steve Collingsworth, second vice president Paul Spradlin, third vice president Fred Graham, secretary John Williams, treasurer Fred Ankerman, Lion Tamer Richard Hampton, Tail Twister John McDaniel, 2-year directors Ralph Shadley and Dick Mushaw and 1-year directors Jack Shepherd and Joe Hervey.

Other presentations made during the evening were a bell and gavel presented by Dick Chambers, president of the Ada Lions Club which sponsored and helped organize the new club; an American flag presented by the Mt. Victory Lions Club and a speakers rostrum presented by the Kenton Lions Club. Marysville Lions also presented a check to the new club.

Hughes also presented a lapel pin to Jerry Dearth as one of the sponsoring Lions and stated that Ray Long, another of the Ada Lions members to be instrumental in getting the new club started, would be presented his award later as "Guiding Lion."

The USV Lions will hold their meetings on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at the Red Fox Inn at 7 p.m.

Charter members of the club are:

Myron Adams, Fred Ankerman, Bradley Campbell, Steve Collingsworth, Fred Graham, Roger Guyton, Delmar Hampton, Richard Hampton, Joe Hervey, Marion Lawrence, Mike Lynn, John McDaniel, D. Ray Miller, A.A. Mushaw, Bruce Neely, Don Pfoff, Lee Pfoff.

Daniel Preston, Albert Rankin, Russell Roberts, David Rolston, Edwin Rowe, Carl Shadley, Everett Shadley, Ralph Shadley, Luther Shepherd, Paul Spradlin, David Trusty, Jerry Underwood, Jack Whitaker and John Williams.

Delmar Hampton, right, president of Upper Scioto Valley Lions Club, accepts charter from District Governor Wilbur Hughes during "Charter Night" ceremonies held Saturday night in McIntosh Center.