

Paulding Lions Club Receives Charter Tues.

22 Charter Members Honored At Meeting Tuesday Evening

The Paulding Lion's Club received their charter Tuesday night of this week with 22 members signing the charter, in a banquet meeting at the Paulding Grange Hall.

The fried chicken dinner, with all the trimmings was served by the Paulding Grange ladies, to over 100 Lions and their wives. Represented at the banquet were 13 Lion Clubs consisting of Bryan, Holgate, Hicksville, Montpelier, Oakwood, Grover Hill, West Unity, Payne, Defiance, Dunkirk, Lima, Woodburn, Ind., and Paulding.

Members of the Paulding Club are A. E. Allensworth, E. H. Beetler, Robert Burke, Geo. Cassell, Richard Crowell, Bernard Dangler, Rev. Donald Fauble, Robert Fox, Edward Fry, Paul Garwood, Arthur Hoover, Paul Kirk, Ed Kuns, Harold Miller, Ralph Reinhart, Harry Rohr, Ernie Rulman, Eugene Shangknessy, John Webb, Karl Werling, Ed Morrison, and Nevada Coons.

Lion, Reeder Hutchinson of Defiance served as master of ceremonies for the evening.

Alva Webb, of Paulding entertained the group, by playing three numbers on his "musical saw".

Ed Ward, district governor of Lions International, presented the charter to Paul S. Garwood, president of the Paulding Lions Club.

Merle Blue, district governor of Dunkirk, Ohio, presented the new Paulding Lion members with their pins.

At the close of the meeting The Sponsoring Defiance Lions presented the newly organized Paulding Club with a Symbolic Bell and Gavel.