

New Lions Club Given Charter

The new Wauseon Lions Club received their charter Tuesday night at a charter night dinner at the First Christian church.

The charter was presented by Gerald C. Smith of Urbana, who is the Ohio district governor of the Lions Club. Representatives from nine northwestern Ohio Lions Clubs were in attendance, including Defiance, Toledo, Holgate, Perrysburg, Montpelier, West Unity, Dunkirk, Bryan and Fayette.

The sponsoring club was Fayette. The Fayette club made a mass visitation to the Charter Night program to mark their own 11th anniversary.

The principal speaker was Don Wolfe, state editor of The Toledo Blade. Wally Praet is president and there are 16 charter members.

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/881170185/>

Wauseon's newly organized Lions Club was formally instituted Tuesday night, when Gerald Smith, Ohio district governor, presented a charter to club president, Wally Praet. Watching the ceremony are Mayor John Barber and George W. McConkey, international Lions representative, of Findlay. The Fayette club, sponsors, was present along with other Lions from nearby towns.

Clipped By:
wkeller2
Nov 3, 2024