

New Scott Lions Club Organizing

SCOTT—A new Lions Club is being organized in Scott under the sponsorship of the Grover Hill Lions Club.

The first meeting was held Monday night at which Alfred F. Williams was elected president; Keith Sperry, first vice president; Harold N. Dougal, secretary; James L. Adams, treasurer; Wayne Price, liontamer, and Max J. Lambright, tailtwister.

The next meeting will be held February 25 when the organization of the club will be completed and plans will be made for the charter night ceremonies.

Doyle R. Mohr was appointed general chairman of the charter night committee.

Scott Lions Club Elects Officers; Ladies Night Set

SCOTT — The organization has been completed for a new Lions Club in Scott and the period for charter memberships is now open, closing March 11 when the first ladies night program will be held.

The date for the charter night will be announced as soon as the committee completed its planning.

Officers elected are Alfred F. Williams, president; Keith Sperry, first vice president; Virgil M. Taylor, second vice president; Doyle R. Mohr, third vice president; Harold N. Dougal, secretary; James L. Adams, treasurer; Wayne Rice, lion tamer; Maxie J. Lambright, tail twister.

Directors are Gene E. Hoaglin, Carl M. Foust, Richard E. Van Atta and Lewis M. Myers Jr.

President Williams has appointed the following committee chairmen: Mohr, charter presentation; Adams membership; Vernon O. Pond, finance, and Clyde L. Taylor, constitution and by-laws.

Scott Lions Club Banquet Carded

SCOTT—The charter night banquet of the Scott Lions Club will be held at 7 p. m. Thursday at the Blue Creek School.

Alfred Williams is acting president of the new club, which had 34 charter members and six new members.

The Scott Club is being sponsored by the Grover Hill Lions and Oliver Stemen of Grover Hill will be the toastmaster.

Tickets for the banquet may be obtained by calling Doyle Mohr, chairman of the charter night committee, Scott No. 14.
