Alger Girl Wins Queen Of Lions

Forest Man Elected District Governor

Marlene Mushaw of Alger last night was chosen queen of the Lions of District 13-D at the closing session of a district conference held at Findlay college.

The Celina club's quartet won the district quartet honors. Miss Mushaw and the Celina quartet will represent the district at the state convention in Cincinnati May 16, competing with other district winners for the state title.

Olan Rahrig of Forest, was elected district governor at the business session yesterday afternoon. He will succeed Gerald C. Smith of Urbana July 1. Fred Carter of Bryan was elected deputy district governor.

BESIDES THE queen and quartet contests the session last night was featured by a presentation of the musical, "Call Me Madam," by Mrs. William O'Brien, Mrs. James Child, and Allen Dudley.

A memorial service was conducted by R. H. MacCullough of Defiance. The Old Mill Streamers quartet furnished music for the dinner session. The address of the evening was given by Dr. Tennyson Guyer.

Services At AME Marking 68 Years Start At Church

The first of the services observing the 68th anniversary at Mason Chapel AME church were held yesterday afternoon in the church.

Sunday School groups of the host church and several others presented the program, consisting of songs and readings. The Rev. O. P. Downard, of West Park EUB, spoke and a quartet from the church gave several numbers.

The Rev. Victor Monk, of Trinity Lutheran church, spoke and the Burnap sisters, a trio, presented a number.

At the service tonight, the speakers will be the Rev. Donald W. Cryer, of First Methodist church, and Miss Clara Taylor, of Rossford.

The program tonight will be given by the senior Women's Missionary society of the church. All women of the county are invited to the service.

The program Tuesday will be given by the church choir. All proceeds of the event will be used in remodeling and redecorating the church.
