

Lions attend convention
