

District 13-A Lions hold their annual convention in Findlay

FINDLAY — Dr. John Moats of the Bryan Lions Club was recently elected district governor at the District 13-A Convention held in Findlay.

The convention was held April 4-6 and attended by nearly 180 Lions Club members from Northwest Ohio. Current Gov. Dan Ritter of the McComb Lions Club presided over the meetings.

Ron Meyers of the Napoleon Lions Club was elected to the Ohio Lions Building Trustees plus there were a number of seminars.

The group was entertained by the Arcadia High School Choir on Saturday evening. Lion Moats will start his term in July 2008 after attending the Lions Club international Convention in Bangkok, Thailand.

The honored guest for the weekend was International Director Ed Lecius and wife Elaine from Merrimack, N. H.

Mr. Lecius is a current international director for Lions Club International.

Convention chairpersons for this year's convention were Bill and Amy Murphy from the Sherwood Lions Club.

The Lions are the world's largest service organization with more than 1.3 million members from 200 countries. The group was founded by Melvin Jones of Chicago in 1917. (Information courtesy of the Bryan Lions)
