

James G. Sugg (Janet) District Governor 1991-1992 District 13A

James G. Sugg was born December 14, 1936 near Holgate, Ohio. He is a graduate of Holgate High School and attended Wittenburg University's Supervision and Management Training Program.

From 1955 to 1981, Lion Jim was employed by Manville Corporation in Defiance, Ohio as a supervisor. He took early retirement in 1981 and is currently a self employed contractor specializing in residential remodeling and insulation. He also is Zoning and Building Inspector for Pleasant Township in Henry County.

Governor Jim joined the Holgate Lions Club in 1981 and has held all offices except Secretary-Treasurer (the office held by his cabinet secretary-treasurer for many years). He received the 100% President Award for his term as club president in 1985 and has ten years perfect attendance. Lion Jim has served two terms as Zone 2 Chairman, Junior Deputy Governor, and Senior Deputy Governor. Governor Jim and Lion Janet have attended many district conventions - in District 13-A as well as throughout Multiple District 13. They have also attended two USA/Canada Leadership Forums and the International Convention in St. Louis.

Lion Jim and Lion Janet have been married 34 years and have two daughters, two sons and ten grandchildren. They attend First Baptist Church in Defiance. Governor Jim is a member of Manville's Quarter Century Club, holds a life membership in the National Rifle Association, and enjoys hunting, fishing, and collecting toy tractors.
