

Dwight C. Murray

FINAL RITES FOR Dwight C. Murray, 80, Findlay, were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Coldren-Crates Funeral Home, Findlay. He died at 12:55 a.m. Wednesday, June 6, in Blanchard Valley Hospital.

Murray was a retired attorney and former Findlay Municipal Judge.

He was born Nov. 23, 1903, in Bluffton to Medlow and Ann (Breyman) Murray. He married Billie Crates in 1925 and she preceded him in death.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Patricia Reissig, Findlay; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Murray began practicing law in Findlay in 1939. He was a past president of the Findlay Civic Service Commission, on which he served 16 years. He was a member of the Odd Fellows, Rebekah and Moose Lodges, all in Findlay, and the Findlay and National Association of Retired Persons. He was a member and past president of the Findlay Lions Club and was district governor for the Lions in 1948. He was also a member of the city, county, northwest Ohio and state bar associations.

Rev. Paul Frey officiated at the services. Burial was in Lee Cemetery, south of Vanlue. ■