

Notable Americans," received the Ohio PTA 1976 "Educator of the Year Award, author of the textbook "Mechanical Art", designer of "Odyssey of the 95th Infantry Division," won first place in an Ohio American Legion Bicentennial Design Contest and won first place in Allen County Bicentennial Design Contest. He served with the Army in World War II for the and one half years with the 95th Infantry Division Artillery, serving in Northern France, The Rhineland and Central Europe. he received the EAME Theater Ribbon with three Bronze Stars American Theater Ribbon, Good Conduct Ribbon, World War II Victory Medal and Bronze Star Medal. He was pas president of Troy Lions Club, past director governor of Lions Clubs International, past presidnet of Ohio Lions Past District Governors Association, served on the Ohio Lions State Council of Governors, served as chairman of the Ohio Lions Sight and Hearing Committee, Constitution and By-laws Committee, Finance and Planning Committee, Ohio Lions Leadership Development Committee, was a member of Lima Host Lions Club and named "Lion of the Year" 1969-1970, won first place in Lions Clubs International — sponsored contest for "Best Induction Ceremony for New Members," received four International Presidents" Awards, recipient of Melvin Jones Fellowship Award (highest award given by the Lions Clubs International Foundation); he served on Planning committee and presenter and Education Association, Ohio Education Association, National Education Association, Ohio Art Education Association; served on board of directors, Lima Art Association, Lima Area Arts Council, United Way of Greater Lima, St. Rita's Medical Center Development Board, Senior Center Services Board, Lima Post American Legion and a member of West Elm United Church of Christ, Lima.

Survivors include his wife, Jessie M. Clark of Lima and Tucson, Ariz.; daughters, Rebecca "Becky" Latta (Jerry) of Defiance, Lynda Porter (Daniel) of Anacortes, Wash.; four grandchildren, Amy Pflug (Daniel) of Louisville, Ky., Angiel Theiszzen (Micah) of Cassopolis, Mich., Nathan Porter of Anacortes, Wash. and Ben Porter of Anacortes, Wash. He was preceded in death by his sister, Thelma Fiehman.

Services will be at 3 p.m. Saturday, March 8 at Chamberlain-Huckeriede Funeral Home with services being co-ordinated by interim minister of West Elm Street United Church of Christ, the Rev. Betsy Tobak, with memorial trubutes by Dr. Earl McGovern, representing Lima City Schools; Local Host Lions Club memorial tribute by Larry Swords; Ohio District 13 Representative memorial trubute; Ohio Lion's Club memorial tribute; and National Lion's Club memorial tribute.

RICHARD E. CLARK

Richard Edward "Dick" Clark, was born in Middleburg on July 13, 1918 to James Richard and Clara Pearl (Shafer) Clark. He was raised in Caldwell, and graduated from Caldwell High School in 1936, and was a member of the 1934-35-36 championship basketball teams.

He married Jessie Marie Sherbourne on July 3, 1945 who survives. They lived in Lima but enjoyed spending their winter months in Tucson, Ariz. He attended the Cincinnati Art Academy, The Ohio State University, where he earned his bachelor of art degree in education, Miami of Ohio University, and Wittenberg University where he earned his master's degree in supervision and administration. He had retired and was formerly director of art and administrative assistant in School-Community Relations Lima City Schools, and was former art supervisor of Celina and Troy public schools. He had worked as a commercial artist and designer. He was listed in "Who's Who of American Educators" and "Who's Who of