

Lioness Club organized

Twenty-two prospective members attended the organizational meeting of the new Bryan Lioness Club, held at the Moose Lodge on Sept. 21.

Charter officers elected were: Lenore Yahraus, president; Marcia Parker, first vice-president; Dorothy Ernsberger, secretary; Helen Snyder, treasurer; Esther Boutell, tail twister; Doris Peak, Lioness tamer; and Dorothy Queen, Bonnie Meyer and Donna Goehler, directors.

This club is open not only for persons associated with Lion members, but also to the public. Any ladies interested in becoming a charter member are asked to contact Lenore Yahraus, 636-2655, or Dorothy Ernsberger, 636-3560.

Helping organize the club were guests from Delphos Lions Club, Lion and Lioness Bob Gillespie and Lion and Lioness Mickey Vondron. From the local club were Richard Goehler and Wells Boutell.

The board meeting will be held on Oct. 12, 7:30 p.m., at the home of Lenore Yahraus. The next regular meeting will be a dinner at the Moose Lodge, Oct. 19, at 6:30 p.m.

Officers and installing officers participating in the charter night ceremony for the new Bryan Lioness Club on Thursday evening at the Bryan Moose Club dining room are, from left, Helen Snyder, treasurer; Richard Goehler, Bryan Lions Club president; Richard Young, of Columbus Grove, District 13-A junior deputy governor;

Lenore Yahraus, Lioness president; Ray Lusk, Columbus Grove, District governor of Lions International; Barry McEwen, Maumee, senior deputy governor; Dorothy Ernsberger, secretary. (Times photo)

New Lioness Club has charter night

The charter night dinner meeting of the new Bryan Lioness Club held Thursday evening in the Bryan Moose Lodge dining room was attended by a total of 60 charter members their husbands and District 13-A officers and past district governors of Lions International.

Lion Wells Boutell served as master of ceremonies for the charter night installation service, which included the installing of the 35 charter members of the new club by Barry McEwen, of Maumee, senior deputy district governor; the installation of the officers of the new Lioness club by Richard Young, of Columbus Grove, junior deputy district governor, and the presentation of the charter to Bryan Lioness Club President Lenore Yahraus by Lions International District 13-A Governor Ray Lusk, of Columbus Grove.

Past district governors recognized and speaking briefly were Don Drain, of Toledo, and Nate Hampshire, of Findlay.

Also present was District 13-A zone chairman Russell Oxender, of Pioneer.

Officers of the new Lioness Club in addition to President Yahraus are Marcia Parker, first vice president; Helen Snyder, treasurer; Dorothy Ernsberger, secretary;

Donna Goehler, Dorothy Queen and Bonnie Meyer, directors; Esther Boutell, talltwister, and Doris Peak, Lioness tamer.