

Times photo/Dan Robinson

New club

Members of the new Alpha Leo Club of Hardin County conducted their first meeting Wednesday evening at Henry's Restaurant in Kenton. They include (from left, seated) Allison Howard, Alec Keller, Jacob McKee, (back) Advisor Cindy Keller, Noah Eikenbary, Clark Zichafoose, Haley Gossard, Advisor Bill Keller, Anthony McKee and Kenton Lions Club President Judd Robinson. The club, which pro-

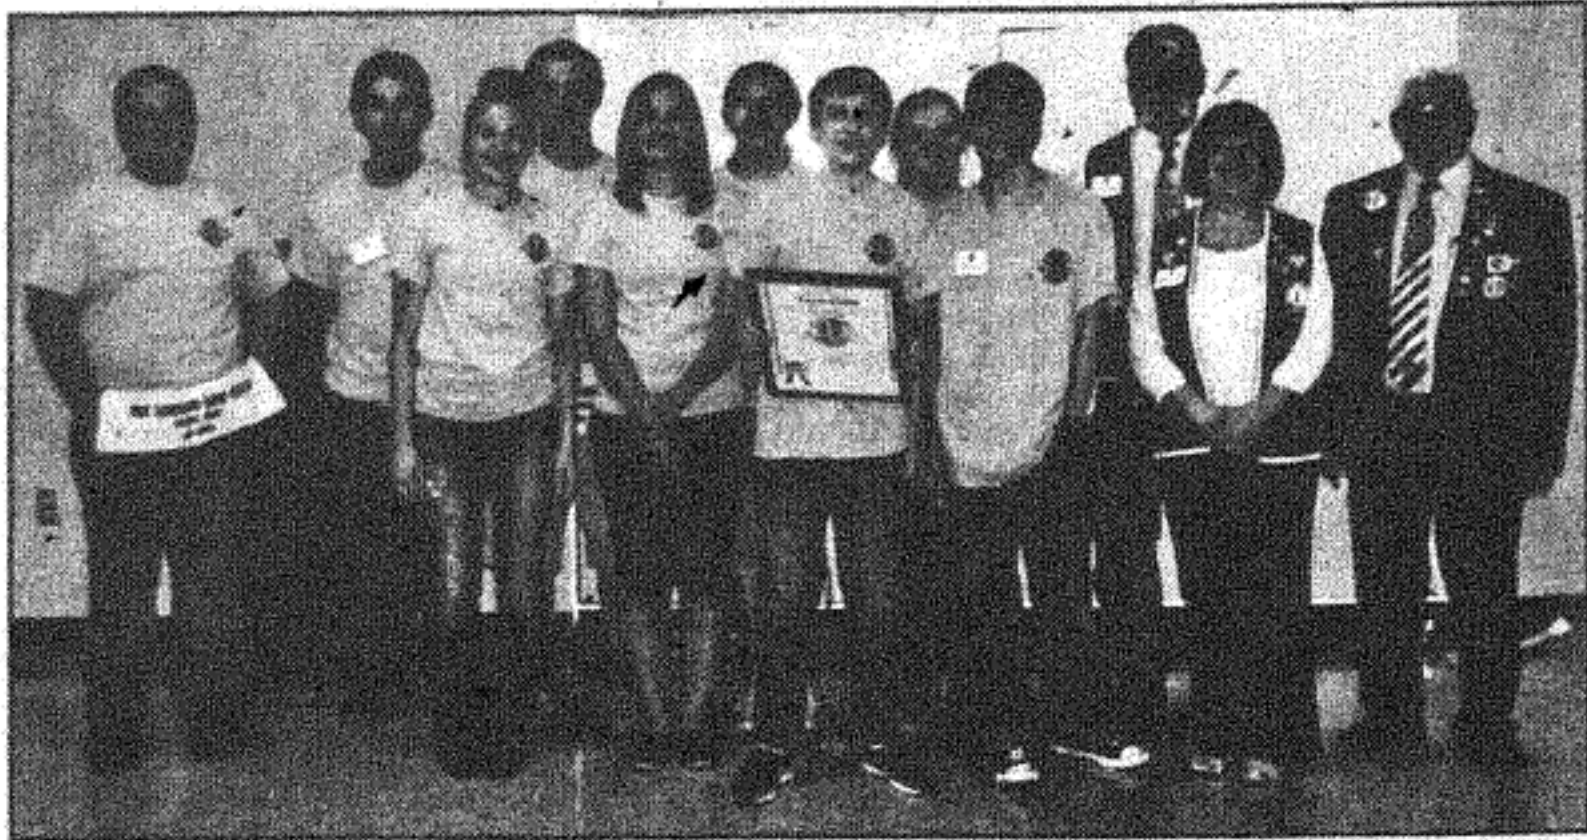

notes leadership and service to others, is sponsored by the Kenton Lions Club and is open to anyone between the ages of 12 and 18 who live in the county. Students from Kenton and Riverdale joined together for the first session under the leadership of Cindy Keller, Bill Keller and Robinson. There is no charge for becoming a member and the club meets on the first and third Wednesdays of each month at 5 p.m. at Henry's.

New member of Leo Club

Lions Club Council Chair Darlene Roll places a pin on the shirt of LEO member Jacob McKee during ceremonies Wednesday evening at the Jacob Parrott Service Center in Kenton. The new LEO chapter was established in February and was presented with its charter at the meeting by District Gov. Karl Cox. It is sponsored by the Kenton Lions Club. A related photo is on page five.

Times photo/Dan Robinson

New charter

The Kenton Lions LEO Club was presented with its charter by District Governor Karl Cox at a ceremony Wednesday evening at the Jacob Parrott Service Center. The youth group sponsored by the Lions Club has 10 active members and was established in February. The members and advisors are (from left) Jacob McKee, Anthony McKee, Emma Carter, Noah Elkenbary, Riley McKinniss, Alley Howard, LEO President Alec Keller, Hailey Gossard, Clark Zichafosse, Kenton Lion Club President Jed Robinson, LEO Advisor Cindy Keller and Cox.

Times photo/Dan Robinson